IT'S YOUR MOVE

This chess game has been going on
For about 11 hours. A crowd of People are gathered around the two Men. The game was fun at first, the People shouting vigorously for Action. But, the people are afraid,
For their pawns are being Lost, stolen, and neglected for their great Value. The people carry on loudly, Begging, demanding, screaming for An end to this ridiculous lack of Senses concerning valuable pieces,
Such as the pawns. The men really Try not to lose their pawns, for
Then there is not much protection
For the king. "That pawn was not Rightfully taken." "I'll give
It back if you'll surrender."
"Never, I must not lose face."
Now there are no pawns
Protecting the kings. One of the Men holds a handful of pawns over
The board, saying:
"It's your move ..."

YOU ???

What are you?
A person, place, or thing?
Are you alive or dead?
You only know the answers.
You are the one who cares
Find them out and own the world.

by: debbie nickerson

YOU

You are a person who can do many things,
You can build or destroy
You can have democracy or kings,
You can live with brotherhood and joy or with prejudice and hate,
You can have a beautiful earth or none,
You had better decide before it's too late.
